

Jacqueline Babler
1520 Ashley Ct.
Green Bay, WI 54313

I am writing to formally inform you that the terms of the contract dated January 26, 2024, for project id: "VRCNB-TZEVG-QBWM8-B6PEY", have been fulfilled. The agreement and supporting documents were sent to your email address for your reference.

Additionally, QOLOS, INC. wishes to notify you that, until further notice, we do not intend to engage in any future business with you, Jacqueline Babler, or your company, The Barbie Market.

Please note that the previous offer to agree to the NDA sent to you on Friday, June 28, 2024, in exchange of the final payment of $4,250 has been rescinded. As per the contract, a final balance of $4,250 is due. Upon receipt of the final payment, QOLOS, INC. will transfer the hosting services to you, thereby passing ownership of all the work completed, to you.

To pay this invoice, send Payment to:

QOLOS, INC.
340 N.Broadway STE 200
Green Bay, WI 54303

An online payment option was sent via email.

Additionally, this letter serves as a formal cease and desist notice regarding any and all defamatory statements against Chad VanCalster or QOLOS, INC. This includes, but is not limited to, false statements in regards to Titledown Oil, posting confidential documents, and any statements alleging that QOLOS did not perform the objectives of the contract, as the terms of the agreement are complete. Failure to comply with this notice will result in legal action against you to the fullest extent of the law.

Additionally, this letter serves as a notice that if payment of the balance is not received within 30 days, legal action, including attorney fees, will be pursued to collect the outstanding amount.

Sincerely,

Chad VanCalster (CEO/ President)
QOLOS, INC
340 N.Broadway STE 200
Green Bay, WI 54303