Can you let me know when this is changed?

I want to make it this, but then "under construction"

Feb 23, 2024, 11:29 AM

Do you think this can be complete by Sunday when I leave? I would greatly appreciate it!

Feb 23, 2024, 12:44 PM

Yes I can do that

Feb 23, 2024, 2:20 PM

Thanks, people are now telling me I can't use the word Barbie, do you know if that's true? I emailed Mattel to see if any issues.

Feb 23, 2024, 3:48 PM

That could be true. Not sure

Feb 24, 2024, 9:58 PM

Mar 10, 2024, 4:49 PM

How is site coming along? Also, before I forget, when someone signs up to be a vender, please have them send in drivers license. Hoping this is cut down on scammers

Mar 11, 2024, 8:55 AM

Hi Jackie. I'm just getting caught up after vacation. I see that the dev team is testing orders today. I'll get everything together and have an update for you later this week.

Mar 11, 2024, 3:04 PM

Thank you!

Mar 11, 2024, 8:46 PM

Can you also please make sure to filter by newly listed and ending soonest for auctions?

Mar 13, 2024, 7:03 PM

Let's set up a meeting for early next week to go over everything. Daytime or evenings work for me. What works for you?

BTW, it's not done, just going over progress.

Okay, nights or afternoons work best for me.

Where would we meet? In person?

Doesn't have to be in person. I can show you through video. But if you'd like to meet in person, I have an office with a conference room on Broadway

No that's okay, video is fine

Thanks, I am so excited!

People are already getting really excited about it. Also, if we need to change the name is that hard?

I have a podcast on Tuesday. So Monday and Wednesday is open. But Tuesday would work if around 8PM

No we can change the name if needed. Logo might be the hard part.

What would need to be done if we change the name?

I just haven't heard from Barbie yet.

Mar 13, 2024, 8:29 PM

Logo and domain name. That's about it

Is that a hard change if needed

I can tell you what happens if they would go after you. They'll write a cease and desist letter. The. You'll just have to change it quick. They probably won't find you for at least a year or 2

They won't come out and sue you right away. That would be bad for business

Okay, great, I did write them and asked permission and reached out to someone that works for them, I just haven't heard anything back. Thank you!

It happened to a company called Jarvis. The Iron Man franchise made them switch their name. And they were a big company already

Okay, that makes me feel better

Mar 16, 2024, 2:30 AM

Coming soon, I'm beyond excited! 😊

Please visit site
www.thebarbiemarket.com, bookmark it
and follow its progress.

A community of Barbie Lovers, where you can Buy, Sell, Discuss & LOVE BARBIE!

Thank you Chad VanCalster, for making my dreams come true!

Home Page

Just FYI, this site is going to be HUGE! Plan on doing an app soon after! Pressure on!

I spent about 20 hours promoting it. Adding friends in Barbie FB World! I already have my own pretty big group, where I only allow my FB Barbie poets.

Don't know if you can see, but I should be bringing in A LOT of traffic!

I added like 500 friends today! LOL! 😂

All Barbie friends!

Hi Jackie. Did we ever set up a time to go through the website?

Mar 19, 2024, 5:21 PM

No, probably Thursday

Mar 21, 2024, 2:07 PM

My cat died last night, can't meet today

Mar 21, 2024, 2:31 PM

So sorry to hear that. 🙄

Mar 24, 2024, 6:40 AM

Are we going to have like a maintenance agreement or anything incase something goes wrong on website?

Mar 24, 2024, 2:51 PM

I know you said you would be there if something goes wrong, but my sister said we should have something in writing. If something goes wrong I have no idea what to do.

Active 45m ago · 📶

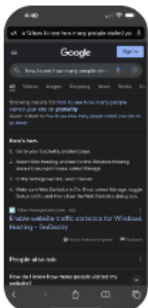

Customers of your size will typically have a maintenance plan per month of 5-10 hours to keep the site current.

Mar 27, 2024, 4:38 PM

Can you see how many people bookmarked it or how many people have visited?

Just trying to plan, also, right now since I don't have my auction license I don't think I can have auctions. Also, since we can't determine shipping ahead of time, it will need to be USA only.

I don't have any stats or can get the bookmarks in any way.

Directions are above

That's for GoDaddy. Your site isn't hosted there. I can maybe add Google analytics to your page. That'll take a little time.

Okay, that would be great to know.

Can you then send me video of site so far? Also, when do you expect to be complete?

OK, I'll get started on it. Also the reminder of the retainer fee is due. I'll send that over shortly.

What is that? Sorry.

You asked to split the retainer fee in half.

Oh the other $5000, yeah i thought i would make sure website is good before i paid

Well we agree to split it at front end and after 30 days. We typically charge it all up front.

Can you first send video of website

Yes, of course:
<https://www.loom.com/share/a55b3d7ba3d744eab73eab887c91a5d0?sid=b25a3b04-1644-4022-a480-d5696ec64887>

www.loom.com

This will definitely need to be changed. Many things will need to be changed so we will need to meet.

Agreed. This is the starting point - so there is lots of direction needed so we can get going on the intricacies

Under products is there a search? Is there option to search for newly listed?

We'll probabaly want to start a weekly meeting to go through each page - one by one.

No, it searches all products:

You unsent a message

We could add a newly listed page - that would probably be benefical

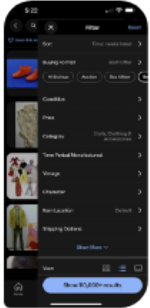

what are you looking for? CLOSE X

Search... 🔍

Okay, but like ebay, you can type in what you are looking for then filter by newly listed, things like that.

OK, We will need to talk through that a little.

I don't need most of the filters but would like some

For auctions I do ending soonest, for buy it now or offers, I do newly listed

I think that is how most people search

Let's set up a meeting for next week - to discuss 1 topic (Home Page, Product listing page [PLP], Product Detail Page[PD], Search, menu, Registration) It doesn't matter which one, but to get focussed, that will help.

Okay, 🙌

Then we will work on that section, and next meeting review the previous topic, and start a new one.

Sounds good

What is your place called again and where is it located

My company is QOLOS - located on Broadway St - by Titledown Brewery, and Voyageur Bakery

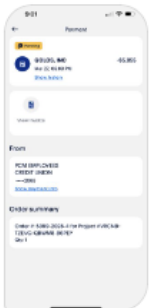

Mar 27, 2024, 5:41 PM

I sent the invoice 2 ways - Credit Card & Paypal. You can choose either one.

PayPal would be better

Mar 27, 2024, 9:01 PM

shows pending for some reason

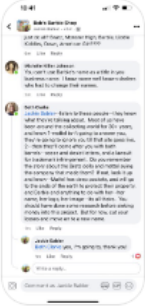

Ok. Might be waiting for the bank to clear it or something. Shows pending on my side too

Mar 27, 2024, 10:15 PM

I am thinking it might be easiest to just call site fashiondollmarket.com. We can leave writing the same and I possibly the logo, we might just need to put a bow in her hair or something. Still trying to find out.

Sucks because I registered my business as the barbie market, now i don't know if i need to change that as well

Can you draw this and maybe put a bow in her hair? Not sure if Mattel is good with that or not?

Mar 28, 2024, 5:00 PM

Sorry for late message last night, didn't realize how late it was. Basically we are going to need to change the name and more than likely the silhouette. I hate the Barbie World sometimes.

Shouldn't be a big deal at all.

Okay, thanks, I am just really picky about logo. Thank you feel better now.

I don't want logo to be so fancy it takes away from name, if that makes sense.

I did already buy the domain, Fashion Doll Market.

Did we ever set a day/time to meet?

Not yet

What works for you?

Maybe Wednesday at 4pm?

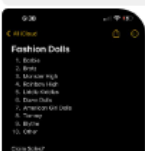

That works for me. In person?

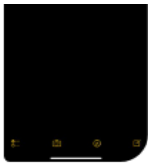

sure, probably easier that way.

Sounds good. I'll email an invite.

Mar 28, 2024, 6:39 PM

I think I want categories to be these. Also, if you can make note to discuss claim sales.

U

Also, what information do you have on site for seller/buyer protection? Seller and buyer fees. Stuff like that?

Needs to be somewhere that says they need to include shipping price with product.

Also, can you change the 40%, and say

A place where you can buy, sell, discuss and love fashion dolls.

It would be cool too, to have a spot where people can post their collections.

I think we need to say as well that this website is for buy/sell fashion dolls only, if it isn't a doll, post will be removed. I will give 2 warnings, then they will be removed.

If it isn't related to a doll, not if it isn't a doll. Maybe give example, like someone trying to sell a wedding ring post will be removed with 2 warnings 3 time they get removed

Mar 28, 2024, 7:34 PM

What will be really productive is if when you have ideas for the site is to start a Word doc or spread sheet, to just start a list and list them there. That will keep what's in your head organized. There's a good chance they could get lost in messenger at some point.

Okay, is it okay if it is in notes. I don't really use word

Yeah. In any format. Just that it's all organized in one spot.

Mar 28, 2024, 8:02 PM

One more to add for category is Bild Lili

Mar 28, 2024, 9:25 PM

Another thing you will need to do is watch my FB Group, Bab's Barbie Shop" it will sort of give you an idea of what I want. I have included you several times on posts for you to follow.

I just wrote up somewhat, rules and conditions. This will probably need to be reviewed by lawyer or someone.

Basically site is combination of FB and ebay. Where you can buy/sell, discuss and love Fashion Dolls. I want it to be more of like of community if that makes sense.

Mar 28, 2024, 9:53 PM

Is there way we where seller can post video of condition of doll?

Also, would be amazing if we could do international, so would love international.

Apr 3, 2024, 4:07 PM

I just wanted to check if we were still meeting at the office or virtual?

Apr 3, 2024, 4:50 PM

I'm so sorry? electric went out last night so absolutely no sleep, I just woke up

I am so sorry, can we meet friday

My Friday is jam packed. Next week?

It was so cold in house and didn't come back on until noon today when i could finally sleep

tomorrow

We lost power today as well

Tomorrow is more open

Yeah I was down since 5:30pm yesterday until 12pm today.

Tomorrow at 4pm work?

Yes that would work

perfect maybe we can just meet video, we will see. thanks chad for understanding, this isn't like me

Or a problem. Had to come to the office today anyway. 😊

ok good

Apr 4, 2024, 1:41 PM

Can we meet virtually?

Yes that works

Great

What is your email? I need to transfer you domain

Chad@qolos.com

Apr 4, 2024, 2:38 PM

Can we just purchase another domain until I can get this one transferred?
TheFashionDollMarket.com

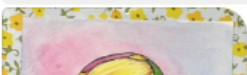

I don't think it's urgent enough to purchase a domain name temporarily

Yeah, but I think I like thefashiondollmarket.com better. Also, we can just have both link to website.

Ok then yeah. If you are going to use it, that makes sense. What's the one you are trying to transfer?

fashiondollmarket.com

Then were you able to come up with logo idea?

I wanted to use this, but lawyer said I shouldn't use any intellectual property of anyone else, painting was based on Mattel's Color Magic Doll.

I didn't do anything as far as a logo goes. A logo is not in the contract but happy to help out with it as needed.

Yeah, I don't have any ideas for logo, I could use this one then just make her swimsuit a different color

Yep. Agree... anything similar could get you in trouble. And it's best to avoid trouble, especially when you start sticking money into things.

Yeah

I liked what you had... I realize it's protected, but we could do something related but unique.

Is pink your color?

Which one the barbie silhouette?

Yeah I like pink

Yes. Or even a cartoonish version of your drawing could work

We should find you a color pallette.

I sort of want the site to be more on serious side so don't think cartoonish would work

but who knows i am open

Maybe cartoonish was teh wrong phrase. More like an icon

okay, yeah that would work

Like the siloutte, but maybe more detail

Yes I did like the silhouette I had

but mattel is evil and will sue me everyone says

THE Fashion Doll Market? Final Answer?

final answer

this is color magic

She is my favorite barbie doll.

Yeah, I get it though - they have to protect their image and brand.

Yeah, I am learning

Ok, understood. I like the story behind it being your favorite doll, however, it might be tough producing the likeness without getting in trouble

Yeah, she is distinguishable by the swimsuit.

I see now what your lawyer is saying.

It's too similar

I don't have a lawyer, I just asked a guy. Do you think I should hire a lawyer?

I guess the guy i asked is a lawyer

It helps to have legal counsel. Someone protecting you from yourself. I've made plenty of mistakes that hard way... I still think though if I'd hired a lawyer early on that it still would have cost me more in lawyer fees.

On more than one occasion my attorney told me it cost you $10,000 to learn this lesson

Oh wow!

Yeah, I don't have that much.

Well that's cost me because I didn't ask my lawyer first. Most of the mistakes had to do with contracts, etc.

I guess I'll wait right now and see maybe once website it done

Just let's make note of everything we should have them review

One was a contract that I signed but didn't send it to my lawyer first. It had some language in it and the guy I was working with wasn't an honest person

That sucks

Learn as you go right?

I honestly didn't even really read our contract, just trusting you.

I don't know what all that stuff means, lol.

I'll walk you through it if needed

Okay, thanks, but it's okay, i trust you.

Fashion Dolls

1. Barbie

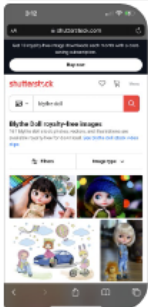

2. Bratz
3. Monster High
4. Rainbow High
5. Liddle Kiddles
6. Dawn
7. American Girl
8. Blythe
9. Bild Lili
10. Other

For categories of dolls I was thinking this. Right now you have like blonde barbie, stuff like that. Is this okay? Then we will need to find picture of each kind of doll and make sure we have permission to use picture

Do you think I can use this for category of Barbie?

Can you use this to find pictures? Says it is royalty free.

3,409 American Girl Doll Images, Stock Photos, 3D objects, & Vectors | Shutterstock
www.shutterstock.com

Sorry it is bild lilli, not lili

I use adobe stock photos. The images at either place are royalty free, but not free

Can I find them on ebay and just ask the person if I can use them?

Which would be easier

I have a subscription with adobe for all my projects. Stock.adobe.com

Okay, do you need help with pictures for categories, or I am not too picky.

Apr 4, 2024, 7:05 PM

Can you send me video of site? Also, will you please send me logo once it is done.

you can visit it -
<https://barbie.qolos.com/>

barbie.qolos.com

and yes I'll send the logo

awesome! you are wonderful at your job, I like that you are honest with me.

I can't believe how organized you are! You make the process simple.

I am also sending all this information to my family so they might use you in future. I definitely will! I think things have been going smoothly so far, I'm not overwhelmed and so far actually enjoy doing this.

Exactly how it should work, right. I appreciate the kind messages

Yes, I will write an awesome review for you.

Highly recommend you!

You scratch my back, i'll scratch yours!

Do you get a portion of that 2.9%, you should? I hope you do, that way we have common goal.

Also, just curious if you would ever want to invest? Having an application would be amazing!

I don't. Originally I was going put it on my platform, in which case I would, but it was going to be too much labor and more costly to do it that way.

I think it would be beneficial for us to have a common goal. I think you are there, but if you invest you really could make bank!

I was going to do this with Jason, but changed my mind and decided not to. I am so glad I did.

Now I just tell my family about it and haven't even asked them to invest as they think i'm crazy.

I have too many irons in too many fires right now. I wouldn't be able to invest at the moment.

I know that feeling. Lol. My mom still thinks I'm crazy.

Okay, no problem. You could just make application, don't need money just time

Then you can even set it up where you get a certain percentage.

I can give you some number if you want.

I am going to make bank I think.

I put together somewhat of business proposal for Jason, I can show you. Then you don't need money, you just need to make application and make sure this site is successful.

Just do me one favor, go to ebay sold listings and type in barbie. Look at the millions that sell everyday.

I counted the amount of listings sold for 1 days and it was insane. I then averaged $50 per sale which is low. I then took 10% of that. I figure i'll maybe get 10% of the market the first year so took 10% of that and it was like $450,000 I think

Jason was going to invest $20,000 I was going to almost triple it within a year year and half

I also have done tons of other stuff for business so far.

I don't work so all I do is buy and sell Barbie as a career, it's crazy fun

I know it's a huge market. I'm already involved with 2 startups working 80+ hours a week. Maybe that changes in the next few months and I can consider this. I just know the work involved and won't be able to commit the amount of time needed.

Oh I completely understand, let's talk in a few months, but I really think this is a huge opportunity for you.

I am going to Barbie Convention in Palm Springs. It sold its 850 almost before they listed them for sale. I am just going to the same hotel and having a room sale. My best friend and I are. We are going to sell little knock of jewelry and clothes, then talk about business.

Clothes will probably be just sold online.

Oh I forgot, we need to add Store to top part! I am going to sell fashion doll clothes.

fashion doll market clothes

I also ordered like 850 shirts that I might just make and hand out at convention.

I took out $20,000, out half towards you other half towards marketing stuff

You could just set yourself up as a seller and sell along side the other sellers

Good thinking Most new companies forget about marketing

It's a convention and there will be tables, I can't enter convention.

We are going to bring little table I think and sell jewelry at pool. Then I'll give away these little caramels with our room number and time for them to come and look at my other stuff.

i have barbie glasses, omg, i have everything you can think of for barbie.

It's all made from china so super cheap then i will have huge mark up on stuff

I mean necklace for like $1, I sell for $20

Can't sell that stuff on site I know

but the stuff I am making with logo i can sell on site

Oh. Like a merch section. Got it

yup

I love temu and ali express, jersey shirts, all those wholesale sites. I then am just going to repackage the stuff from china and make look nice and sell for a lot more.

I have two heat presses and just going to press on logo

It's just going to be very time consuming

I even think I am going to have my own barbie convention in a few years if everything goes well. thought about having it at casino.

Casino would probably give me convention center for free if I am filling all their rooms and all the people will gamble.

Thought it would be fun to run with my sisters.

just saying, it would be wise of you to get into business, that's all. not opening up to many people right now.

Haven't even gone to parents yet

Something to think about.

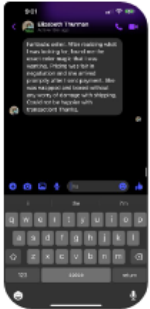

Apr 4, 2024, 8:57 PM

I have a super good idea! I think anyways...

When someone posts their collection, they have option to include a video on why they love their dolls and why they collect!

Then I saw video on first page of website, we could link testimonials there on why they love their fashion dolls. To start I am going to ask a few of Barbie friends or maybe even my sisters, best friend and kidsZ

Here is one testimonial I received so far.

We are also sticking to Fashion Doll Market

no THE

I will transfer to you.

Okay!

Apr 5, 2024, 8:49 AM

I don't like that as much. Can we try Fahion and doll on two separate lines so that fashion doll writing is larger, mold bold.

I think the pink was bolder on barbie.

I hope you don't mind my bluntness

I think as well we might need space between Doll and market

The pink was bolder.. but I didn't want to use the same color - in case that was trademarked

No, it doesn't say barbie anymore so it will be fine

That original icon could have been though

Yes, I am just saying the font for Barbie

I want to use the exact color from Adobe to be safe.

Oh you are saying bolder... not a bolder color got it

We can use that color but can make fashion doll font same as Barbie font

yes, don't bold

They are the same font... in that example

I'll have to send it over to my designer for some ideas.

Okay, thanks!

Okay, so my sister is overloading me with taxes and keeping track of all that stuff. Are you tying this all into quickbooks?

I mean I have been trying to keep track of profit and expenses so far, but will be impossible for me to do on site unless we have some sort of program.

The way I do it to keep it simple is just load in monthly sales through Stripe. That's what my book keeper does.

What gets recorded is your monthly revenue in QB.

There is no need to keep track of revenue on a customer level. The IRS only cares about revenue and expenses.

If someone tells you differently, then hire another accountant that will. It will cost you lots of money to manage it all that granularly.

Can you help teach me this? lol!

I can connect you with a book keeper that's more qualified to teach it than me.

Awesome! That would be amazing!

I think my sister in law is making it too difficult.

I just need to focus on one thing at a time

Oh, my guy who did painting is going to do a couple more for categories.

Probably. It's more simple than you think. I'd just keep track of expenses in a spreadsheet until you launch. Then find a bookkeeper to track everything for you. I just go through my credit card statements rather than track it as I go.

He told me to combine Monster High/ Rainbow High and Bratz, then he will do painting for all of the as one

I would do that only if you think those categories are really small. Like 2-4 items each.

She said we need to have tax forms for customers

No you don't

Absolutely you don't okay, am just going to ignore her.

Tax forms for sellers

They will get a 1099-K form from Stripe. I had to even educate my CPA on this.

He looked it up and I'm right

Okay, well I trust you.

If you were paying them directly, with a check or ACH, then yes. If you pay them directly with a CC, then no. But you aren't paying them directly - Stripe is, so none of that even applies.

Awesome!

Easy as pie!

Same with PayPal. If you pay anyone with PayPal, they don't need a 1099 okay, awesome!

So the one category will be those 3 then. We can leave rest separate and he will paint pictures for each category. He is also going to redo color magic swimsuit so i can use it for site.

Thought it would look really nice with his painting.

Remember he did this one

I'd keep in mind that print doesn't work well on websites. Personally I don't feel like it fits the aesthetics. Also as you need more or need to change categories you will need to get him to create it. What if something happened that he's not available?

Also, the concerns were about copyright, correct?

It's a great image, but you might be trying to fit a square peg in a round hole on this one

I am not going to use the flowers, just the painting, thought i could use this one as part where girl is now.

I'd suggest let us fill out the categories and if you want to make changes to it we can test it on one or two to see how you like it. Before you get ahead of yourself and pay him to do them all.

Wait, not this one, one that he will be redoing with all one color swimsuit so doesn't look like color magic,

I am just trading him a barbie doll.

That has value... that you could sell. But your call

What has value?

I told him painting couldn't look like character, it needs to be more general.

I thought i could take his painting and make copies and possibly sell them as I am getting rights to them

But first I need him to make them and send them to me

I can then take pictures and take a picture of them as needed for site

It's like a $800 barbie doll that i got for $70

oops didn't mean to hit that

Exactly. You could sell it for $800.

I wouldn't it needs work that he can do

Ok

I would like to have categories and this way they are unique with paintings.

If can't reach him if different categories then my father in law or my husbands cousin could do.

I figure if I make copies of his paintings and sell I could make decent money. Plus I can put them in my office for inspiration.

I would be able to sell doll for like $500, he can then fix up and it will be worth more

Apr 6, 2024, 6:44 AM

This is why I think a painter will be huge! When site releases it will be art gallery as well!

Apr 6, 2024, 8:32 AM

I would die if we put barbie on first slide then bild lilli on second.

Mattel would be fuming 😡 because Ruth technically stole the idea from bild lilli. So coming after to me would give them the same image! lol

This guy is an amazing painter that i think just hasn't been discovered. He's a hair stylist. lol!

Apr 11, 2024, 9:07 AM

Can we move our meeting for today to tomorrow (or Saturday, or Monday)? I'll have a designed logo to share by then.

sure

Thank you

no problem

Apr 11, 2024, 10:29 AM

I have been buying Vintage Barbie dolls, their clothing and accessories from Jackie Babler over the last 5 years. Jackie was a well recognized name on Facebook. Everything she was selling was ideal for a collector. She made Barbie collecting a lot more fun for me! Great quality, wide selection and great communication. I never had a complaint, only praise. Thank you for this opportunity. Jeanne Johnsen

I'll send other one better as well as you can just copy and paste

I'll send other one better as well so you can just copy and paste

Fantastic seller. After realizing what I was looking for, found me the exact color magic that I was wanting. Pricing was fair in negotiation and she arrived promptly after I sent payment. She was wrapped and boxed without any worry of damage with shipping. Could not be happier with transaction! Thanks.

Elizabeth Thurman

I should have at least one more, people have just been busy

Apr 11, 2024, 2:34 PM

This past year, I have been purchasing vintage Barbie clothes through Jackie Babler. She searched for the outfits that I wanted from my childhood. Pricing great. Items received timely and were secure. The most important to me is that she is very trustworthy, caring, and guided me through transactions. I am very pleased and remain a loyal customer.

I like 2nd, but can we make market a little bigger so people don't search fashion doll and forget market

Apr 12, 2024, 6:14 PM

Apr 12, 2024, 8:18 PM

actually i am going to get group feedback, I like 1 as well but again market needs to be bigger and i wish head was a little more center to words

I will let you know, thanjs Chad, don't have updated website either changes that you can send me to. Also, you will need to sign up for domain.com so I can transfer you domain

Apr 19, 2024, 10:35 AM

please let me know when you set up account on domain.com

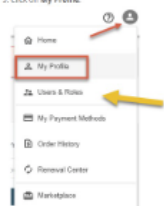

Apr 19, 2024, 11:41 AM

I don't have an account on domain.com and they don't allow you to create one without making a purchase. You can add me as a user to your account and I can initiate the transfer for you>

How to edit your personal contact information

1. Log in to your Account Manager.
2. Click the profile icon in the top-right corner of your account.
3. Click on My Profile.

Apr 19, 2024, 3:52 PM

Excellent. I'm in. I'm not able to transfer the account because its a new account and locked for 60 days.

I was able to change teh NS records which transfers control to our servers. Being so, I don't think we need to transfer it, but if you still want to in 60 days, we can do it then.

No, I would like to complete asap

Apr 26, 2024, 1:14 PM

Can you send me updated link so I can see progress, then can we set up meeting?

The link you sent I didn't really see any progress and it's not what we discussed

Not sure what's going on.

It's the same link. We are waiting on feedback and direction. We had a meeting scheduled a few weeks ago that didn't transpire. When are you available next?

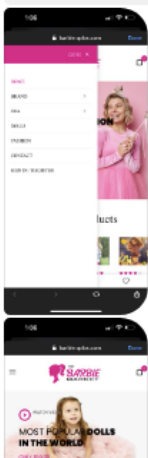

Please read over notes from last time, most things not done. Also, sent you 3 testimonies.

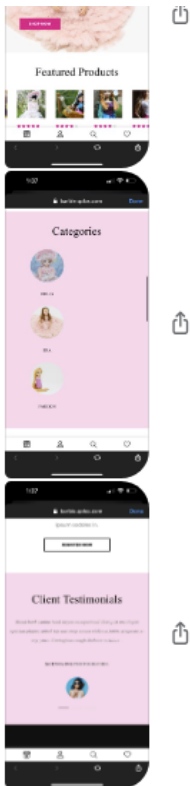

Yes, I saw the testimonies. We are waiting on feedback and direction, when are you available next?

Please update things we talked about last time first

Otherwise we are going over and over sam's stuff

Is someone else doing work or are you? Just doesn't seem like anything we discussed was done like I expected.

All of this is wrong, not updated with A place to Buy, Sell, Discuss or Love Fashion Dolls.

No Doll Wall like we discussed, so many things to even list.

Ok. We scheduled a meeting, which you canceled. Meetings are important to go over the to do list. So when would you like to meet?

You canceled meeting!

When would you like to meet?

I would like you to go through list first and change items, then we can meet.

Why would I meet again just to spend an hour repeating myself.

Few changes that were made, like I mean 2-3 are wrong

It isn't even transferred over to new domain, I am getting so much pressure since I still have the barbie market

When stuff you think is done, please message me and we can set up appointment.

I can tell this isn't your work or you're amazing at taking feedback, giving opinions, taking notes, just not applying.

I feel like we are just going backwards, not forward.

Just VERY disappointed as I thought we covered so much and were so productive on last call.

Apr 27, 2024, 12:41 AM

I guarantee someone else is doing the work, that's why you take such good notes. It's not working. It's taking three times the brain power trying to relay message. Maybe take the $10,000 I gave you now and teach me these VERY simple things. So feedback like 10 year old is doing this far looks like 10 year old is doing this!

I also now need hours accounted for, so far because of bad communication we have gone backwards in hours. Site is further away then closer to than our last discussion.

Wish I wouldn't have paid you the $10k already,

Apr 27, 2024, 2:14 PM

Sorry that was a little harsh

Apr 28, 2024, 7:44 PM

Sorry again for other day, I went a little overboard. Ask my husband he got wrath of Jackie too. That special time of month, but no excuse. I am just very underwhelmed so far.

I was very excited for changes being made and thought there was a good understanding that they were going to be made. I watched for changes made but nothing was done so I continued to wait and then schedule another meeting. Very glad now to know I can see what is being done of site. Do you understand where I am coming from.

Apr 29, 2024, 9:33 AM

Hi Jackie,

We have a lot to discuss, so let me start by saying I've been in this field for quite a while. One thing I've learned is that we can't let customers dictate how we do our job. Just like you wouldn't tell a plumber or a doctor how to do their work, the same applies here. If I say we need a meeting, we really need it. If you decline, the project will stop.

The importance of this project depends on how much it matters to you. If we give you tasks and they don't get done, or if we schedule meetings and you don't attend, it holds everything up. We have other clients with projects that are a priority for them, so we can't afford delays.

I'm about to send you the notes from our last meeting on April 4. It seems like you're focusing on visual changes, but we clearly outlined the next steps, including sourcing stock photos for the website. Without these, we can't progress on the visual aspects of the website. Let's work together to keep the project moving forward.

You mentioned that you don't see much work being done, but the truth is, we've completed a lot of work. It might not be visible, which is why it's crucial to meet and discuss the tasks we've completed that might not be immediately obvious.

We also discussed having a regular weekly update meeting to review what's been done, what's left to do, and what action items we need to complete the next steps. Looking at the website in isolation without discussing the progress can lead to assumptions and miscommunication. Additionally, as I mentioned earlier, discussing project tasks through Facebook Messenger is counterproductive. It's fine for setting up meetings, but for project updates, a weekly meeting with proper documentation is the best approach.

Please let me know how you'd like to proceed.

Best,
Chad

Can you meet in like an hour, otherwise can we set something up for Sunday evening?

Or can we just chat on here?

Probably easier virtual. Can we meet Sunday later afternoon, evening. I didn't get much sleep last night and I am falling asleep. 🥱

Maybe in mean time you could attach color magic photo where snow white is?

Also when you look at site from cell phone, picture looks like this, can we move text/photo over so they don't overlap?

May 9, 2024, 4:00 PM

I'll look at that. We may need to make the text smaller on mobile

We are looking into the Doll Wall tech right now. I'll have a better idea of the effort needed early next week. Looking into a plugin that will allow us to do that much more quicy

Okay, are we still meeting today?

Do you have anything that you need to cover? That is mostly my update. We did move things around,

I guess not right now, unless you did?

I didn't have anything additional to the doll wall update. We can meet next week?

okay, what day?

Thursday Again?

sure

same time?

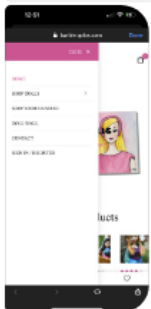

sounds good, thanks Chad

Thank you!

May 15, 2024, 12:51 PM

Any way this can be fixed? When brought up it is overlapping.

Also, shop dolls link isn't working

Categories are doll categories that I sent you, then please match up. Reminder bratz/monster high/rainbow high is all one not sure what happened today, no meeting?

May 16, 2024, 5:33 PM

Can you meet Sunday

Yes I can

May 19, 2024, 3:43 PM

Do you think you could fix stuff I mentioned above then we can meet tomorrow at 4pm?

That works for me

<https://barbie.qolos.com/>

barbie.qolos.com

If you click it, it shows up like this home is like this and shop dolls doesn't work

It's much different than what you showed me today

weird Mine just cahnged too.

Crap, I really hope you didn't lose anything

No.. It changed to another view or somehting

https://barbie.qolos.com/?page_id=9593&preview=true

barbie.qolos.com

Still not working

Then shop dolls isn't working

MAye its becasue you r not logged in. But that's the right view - just need to figure out how to get it attached tot eh home page again.

Is shop dolls supposed to work?

No, it's a dropdown to all the categories

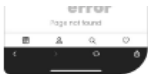

When you click shop dolls nothing generates

Home page is working again.

Yes, because if you click the Shop Dolls, the menu opens

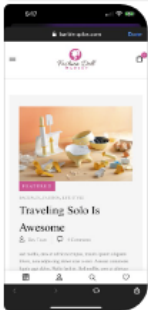

... on mobile

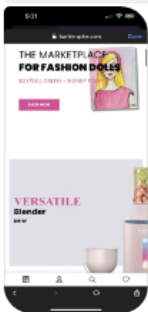

Home isn't working, then when you click shop dolls drop down doesn't generate

When I click homepage from list brings you to error page. When you click homepage from error page it brings you to this.

Sorry, brings you to this

Your phone is likely caching the previous view.

But is is indeed working now.

oops. I loaded a different view. One sec

Okay, any idea how I could view it then?

OK, now it's right

Works, thank God! When you click on each category, is there anyway to show the correct picture at top? Example, I clicked Monster High/Bratz/Rainbow High, but Little Kiddles picture shows.

Also, when you click Shop Now it doesn't do anything, can you just have it bring you to the part of the categories of dolls with the picture?

Same with this, if you click on it can you have it where it brings you to the log on and signup page?

I see sorting when I go to barbie and other categories, but where is search box? For example, I'm looking for a malibu barbie, I don't want to have to go through all barbie in order to find Malibu Barbie.

May 21, 2024, 1:40 AM

We will use this for "other category" picture. Thank you! 🙏

Can we also make 2nd page on first screen that says, "The Marketplace to Buy/Sell, Discuss & Love Barbie"

I have picture for it that I will message you.

Sorry, not "Barbie" but "Fashion Dolls"

May 21, 2024, 8:10 PM

Sorry, wrote a lot last night, did you get my messages?

Yes, got it all. I'll let you know if I have any questions

Okay, thanks

Can you let me know when updates are complete, then I will schedule meeting?

Jun 4, 2024, 5:00 PM

Yes! I started a list today. I'll have it for you by tomorrow

Thank you

Thank you!

Jun 6, 2024, 5:38 PM

Hi Jackie,

Here's an update on the project. We are still testing, so there may be a few tasks added to the list. I'll follow this with an hours report.

Here's a list of remaining tasks:

Contact us Page- After submit, validation error appears

Change Left Menu Categories on PLP

Home Page Header - Change Size of Text on Mobile

Processing Fees - incorrect calculation

Shop Dolls Menu Item -Link to store

FAQ Page

Footer - Business description

Footer Contact Changes

Here are the hours reports:

As of today, we have 15 hours remaining on the project. Keep in mind we added the Doll Wall and that wasn't estimated into the project. With the remaining tasks eating up some of that time, we may not have a lot of hours remaining for training/after-launch support. This is something we will need to keep an eye on.

I see search was added and first page alignment was updated. Did you see rest of my notes.

1. 1st page, click on shop and it brings you to categories?
2. Picture under categories match, after you click on category American Girl picture shows for all.
3. 2nd slide in 1st page. Same as first but different picture and instead of Shop, it will say Discuss and Love Fashion dolls. Picture below. When you click on Discuss and Love Fashion Dolls, please have it connect to Doll Wall.

Also, is there like a seller hub, where they can see items listed and what sold, information like that? Or like a purchase history for buyer, or return option?

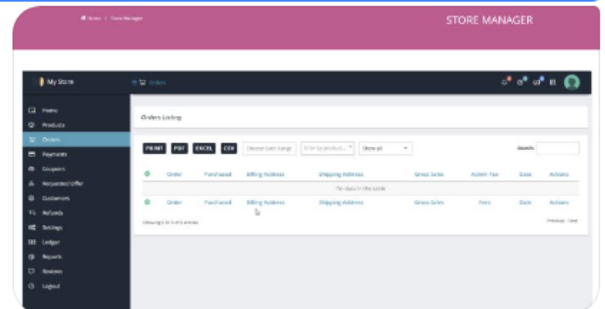

Picture is for 2nd slide

Jun 7, 2024, 3:31 PM

Yes... On the seller hub... There is a whole seller area with lots of options awesome, thanks

Working on that second slide

Also. To put this on your radar: you are going to get to need a Stripe account. Stripe.com

Great, also are buyers and sellers able to chat if buyer has questions about doll?

It's not a chat, but they can ask the seller questions:

Okay and seller can respond?

Jun 7, 2024, 7:01 PM

Correct

Awesome!

Thanks

Jun 14, 2024, 7:42 PM

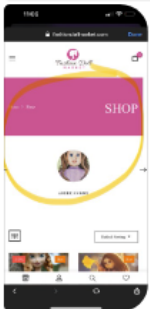

Are you working on my site, it's not opening?

Fashiondollmarket.com. We still have some work to do to fix the images on the new domain. I was hoping to show it to you today

Jun 14, 2024, 11:06 PM

This isn't showing up

When you hit shop it brings you only to American Girl.

Jun 15, 2024, 2:47 AM

Also, I'm sorry I don't mean be negative right away, just pointing out things not working.

Jun 19, 2024, 12:31 PM

The images are now fixed to match the new domain. I'll send a final list of things needed to launch along with any documentation that you will need. You can expect that today or tomorrow.

Fri 5:07 PM

Are you in site, I can't open?

Fri 5:27 PM

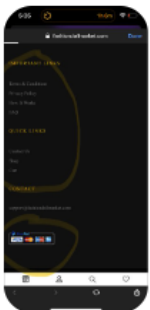

<https://fashiondollmarket.com/>. It's working form

The Fashion Doll Market

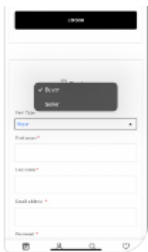

For me...

Looking good, if you could just add "other" picture

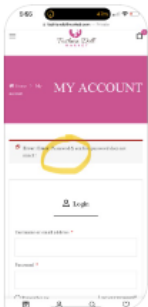

Love it so far, just checking are these links working for you? Also, can people now pay with PayPal, OMG, I would be so excited if they could.

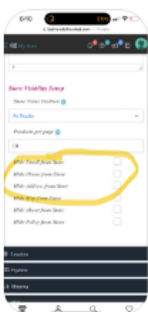

Is there an option to be both buyer and seller?

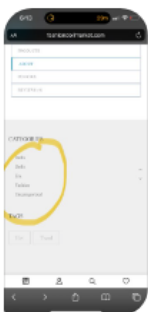

Then this is just small, but spelling error.

Fri 6:10 PM

We will need to take this out as I don't want sellers address or phone number listed on site. Otherwise, people will just call or text them or do reverse address search and work outside of store.

This will need to be updated as no era/fashion anymore, not sure what rest are. Overall, we will need to review and update.

Basically A LOT of glitches once you sign up for site. I tried putting in logo and pictures and stuff and none of it saved.

Also, remind me please or just take note, when email is sent to customer. I want to include a video of me going through how to use site, also would like them to receive terms and conditions, they will then need to sign or click box that they acknowledge they read and watched intro movie.

Hoping you will be willing to complete site and training for the price I paid. I know where we are for hours, but I feel like a lot of the hours were spent correcting mistakes. There is still so so so so so many glitches, but at least my idea is there.

Jackie replied to herself

why do you need to add so many photos? Very confusing. If confusing, people aren't going to spend the time setting up shop.

Fri 6:44 PM

Also, don't really want this, otherwise they will purchase off site.

I guess before you delete, let's discuss it in next meeting, if you could please make note

Sat 1:20 AM

Whatnot: Buy, Sell & Go Live

www.whatnot.com

Sat 1:37 AM

Look at this site, this is all stuff we need to say. Again, if I am getting low on hours, then just invest your time for a certain percentage. I think my idea and what I explained to you about what I need and your idea of what I actually need might be off.

I also know that I need to be more involved. I suffer from depression/anxiety a lot, especially in last year or so, so it's been really hard for me to be business oriented.

I really think you should take a chance on me, invest some of your time, I will then be accountable to make sure we both succeed. I'm think I suck right now doing this, because honestly I'm completely alone.

I also know your not into fashion dolls, but this market idea is going to being AMAZING. You can apply it also to anything. Instead of buying from unknown person, your buying from sellers you have learned to trust.

Great for sellers because with lower fees, they can build their brand within community. Marketplace on FB isn't trusted, but easy to start brand. ebay is trusted, but hard to start brand. I am combining the two!

We forsure need to talk in person sometime, you will realize I am a lot different than you think. I actually preach, peach, love, harmony, but yet I'm stern and often times VERY bitchy when it comes to business.

I have been dreaming of doing this for a while, we just need to somewhat get on same page. Hoping for more of partnership than you doing job for me, I think it's the only way we will both be happy.

Again, if everything works out well, will tell Jason about you. He will have endless work for you as he owns like 300 companies. He is started most companies with people from floor up.

Truthfully however, if things work out good, I will be an endless market for you, since I am GREAT at word of mouth. I could tell any of the big sellers on this website to start their own website and hire you. Possibilities are endless for this relationship.

Mon 6:51 PM

Are you getting any of my messages? Shows you are but no response

Yes. I took Friday off to host a grad party this weekend and I'm still getting caught up.

Wed 2:48 PM

Okay, just getting really nervous as convention is about month away

Wed 4:26 PM

Hi Jackie. Thank you for your patience. I've learned that I can't take a couple days off during the week.

I wanted to give you an update on the Fashion Doll Market website build. The project is currently at 150.83 hours, but since it's a time and materials project, we're now out of hours. I'll attach the work log for your reference.

The "Doll Wall" feature was added, which wasn't included in the original estimate. So, in actuality, the project was under budget without the "Doll Wall".

Also, I wanted to clarify something you mentioned about mistakes in your previous message. Could you let me know what specific mistakes you're referring to? From our perspective, these are just normal progressions in a website project.

Regarding your offer to work for equity, we appreciate the thought, but we won't be able to proceed in that direction. We're not in a position to make an equity investment in the project. More funding will be needed for additional work on the website.

Thanks for your understanding, and let's discuss the next steps.

Total Project Hours.pdf
56.22 KB

OMG, so you're just going to quit after making half of site that doesn't even work? If Doll Wall took up so many hours why did you do it?

Many mistakes were made, I had to correct things like 3 times before they were actually done right.

I didn't say I'd quit, I said additional funding is required to do the extra work that you are asking for.

are asking for

lol, I don't have additional funding

I had to take a loan out for this out of my ira. Paying huge penalty!

The details of the contract were laid out clearly.

Did details not include making a working website

I'm sorry to hear that you're not satisfied with the site. Objectively, it meets the criteria outlined in our contract. If you would like any changes, we will need additional funding to make those adjustments.

As stated in the contract, we agreed on 150 hours at $95 per hour. I've already covered extra work at no additional charge. Unfortunately, I can't continue to work without compensation.

I need to say I am beyond disappointed with this all so far. It is like pulling teeth to even get you to simply add a picture, stuff that I could do myself.

If the doll wall took up too much time, you should have said at that time, you would need additional funding, but you made it sound easy as you said if you had template.

It's not a working site, if the work you did actually worked then I could maybe understand, but it's NOT a working site. Again, so many mistakes were made where I would need to repeat myself about 3-4 time before something was actually done, then MANY times it was done wrong. This is the reason why we are over on time. The reason is you, not me.

Why should I be punished for your MANY MANY MANY mistakes?

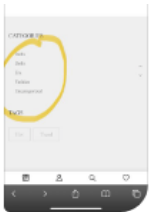

If you actually listened to my feedback, we would be at half the hours.

Example, this simple task of having correct picture to correct category STILL has not been completed, yiu told me this was done.

Category Barbie, but has American Girl doll picture. I must have told you about this 5 times now.

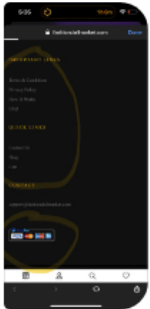

None of these work

Actually sorry last picture, this is still all wrong.

I still can't even set up a f seller profile, let alone add anything to list for sale. This must be a joke!

None of these work.

Also, don't even know if I can use PayPal as you don't respond to 1/2 of my messages.

Make it a working site or I will need to go to BBB or something. This is bull shit! I want to be nice and everything, but I can't help but to think this is a scam or something. Do you purposely make TONS of mistakes to jack up price since hours go over?

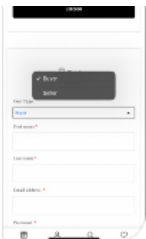

Why was this all done, I never asked for this. Why would I want a seller to give their personal information when I want them to work on site?

this is a joke, why do you need so many pictures? Then even when i just went and added same picture, the stuff doesn't even save.

Why would you think there is just buyers and sellers, often times people want to both buy and sell, but this is just a small thing.

I mean this is probably my 5th time asking for "other" picture to be updated.

Jackie replied to you

I'm sorry to hear that you're not satisfied with the site. Objectively, ...

How on earth you think meets the criteria of the outlined contract is ridiculous. You are supposed to make a functional website, go through the list of stuff that was outlined and actually circle the stuff that was done and done correctly. Circle the stuff that was done correctly the first time and didn't take like 4-5 times me repeating myself when it is STILL wrong.

If you are basing your work off of quality of hours while quality of work has been like a 2, then we will part ways. I will then need to take further with BBB and making sure people are aware of your quality of work from start. Again, can't help but to feel like this is a scam. Rack up hours doing things wrong 4-5 times, then before even finishing website and making a working website you ask for more money. SICK! 🤢

Also, thanks for doing this all a month before deadline, the thousands of dollars I spent on going to Palm Springs is out the door and I can't promote a half ass website.

Can't promote a website that doesn't even work!

Wed 5:33 PM

Lastly, if site is not complete according to contract, I will be forced to sue. This timeline thing doesn't even make sense, but I will be trying to go through it line by line. However, most importantly, site is NOT close to being finished therefore, contract not complete and I will be forced to sue and go public to make sure this doesn't happen to anyone else!

Thank God, most of this has been recorded.

Wed 6:09 PM

I am writing to inform you that an invoice for the remaining balance of $4,250 has been sent, in accordance with the terms outlined in our contract. To date, the total cost of the project is $14,250, less the retainer payment already made.

While you have the right to pursue legal action, please be advised that we will file a counterclaim for the outstanding project balance.

Furthermore, an invoice for hosting services has also been issued. Failure to remit payment for this invoice will result in the suspension of your website, with an additional reinstatement fee required to reactivate hosting services for your account.

We are willing to explore a resolution wherein we waive the final invoice and transfer the work completed to date, contingent upon the execution of a non-disclosure/settlement agreement. Upon agreement, we can package the website and provide it to you.

Please note that, due to your threat of legal action, we are no longer interested in continuing our business relationship.

You must be used to this, must have encountered this problem before. How can you pursue a counterclaim for work not done?

I will be following up with lawyer and proceed from there

I can't believe this is how you run your business. Half of the stuff on contract either wasn't done or doesn't work. I will also be including money lost due to basically wasting my time having to do all of this and filing suit.

Guess I should talk to lawyer before I conduct any other conversation with you. They will be sending you letter of representation. Thank you for basically nothing, Palm Springs is basically out the window as well since can't promote a website that doesn't exist.

Here's my attorney's contact information: Please have your attorney contact him directly.

Wed 7:25 PM

This is all just sad as I feel like I have been taken advantage of. I told you from the start I didn't have anymore money to put towards doing site. You seem like a Christian so hoping you will do the right thing.

To me life is blink of the eye compared to eternity, so hoping the right thing is done.

Also, why does it say hours then added in additional hours to your name. Things like 48 hours, then an additional 48 hours with just your name?

This might be just an error of hours log. We are both adults, hoping we can work out!

Wed 9:31 PM

I see now where 48 hours and 48 hours comes in. However, Barb headers hours are not matching logged hours. Did you or Vladimir possibly fudge numbers? We had 15 and some odd number hours left, now we are over hours, nothing has been done to site since last encounter, only thing that was done was numbers were fudged.

Either way we are getting down to wire on hours i know, but it's about 15.5 hours off.

In addition, all these hours for Barbie issues are WAY too many. I know stuff doesn't always work, but I believe most of these hours were preventable. Especially since it seems like someone else was working on this for you, as I believe you do this as second job.

Like I stated early on, I wish I would just be able to talk to person doing the work as it's takes probably 1/2 hour for the meeting with me, then 1/2 hour to explain to him

It takes probably 1/2 hour for the meeting with me, then 1/2 hour to explain to him, then somehow it takes 2.5 hours to change the color of background. Changing color of background should be as simple as a drop down/change color option.

Like I stated from start, I could tell you were not doing a lot of the work as I could tell there was WAY too much confusion and I couldn't understand why. Now reviewing hours you have proved this. Site has taken double the amount of hours because of your process and having to communicate everything a second time to Vladimir. A minute task, now takes 2.5 hours.

This is not what we agreed upon and again from start I asked to communicate directly through person doing work.

In addition, you stated Doll Wall caused all this additional work, therefore now you're asking more than $4,000 in additional, but Doll Wall seems to only account for 7 hours.

Can you please review hours and get back to me? In addition, please provide copy of contract so I can review again.

Wed 9:48 PM

At most since I added Doll Wall that should be an additional $466. $10,000/150 hours equals $66.67 per hour, this times 7 hours should be $466. However, again, I don't believe I should even owe this as numbers are off, time for delivery from person to person takes time, as well as if I was able to talk directly to person doing work, the confusion wouldn't have been there. After first meeting, I told you I could tell there miscommunication. What I told you to do vs what was done was almost completely wrong. This therefore isn't Barbie issue that you're fixing and calling it, it is the lack of either listening properly or lack in communication between you and Vladimir. Therefore, these reasons have accounted for about 1/2 of the hours you stated site would take.

You pay about 1/3 in lawyer fees, hoping you understand this and work with me and finish site like you stated you would. I told you from start I didn't have anymore money to pay towards site. A completed functional wasn't even provided.

I'm sorry, but haven't even really dug into hours or gotten 2nd opinion on hours. This is clear as day from our conversations this wasn't handled ethically on your end. I believe I can easily prove this.

If needed my family will happily pay for an attorney to settle this, but again I will sue for a lot more than this site if not completed in time for me to go to Palm Springs. I am losing tons of money as it is, just with this bull. All money I could have been making on site if done to the standards you promised me.

In addition, Palm Springs cost me a lot of money, all money I would lose if site not done. I can't go to Palm Springs with no site to promote, but per our conversation site would be done in time.

Wed 10:38 PM

Oh yeah, looked up your record, looks like you're familiar with Lawyer, have a reason to have one. LOL. 😊

Need to get story from pamprins.

Wed 10:56 PM

My big mouth will probably hurt me if anything. Doesn't take away the fact of what you are doing to me. Just ALWAYS remember, the world is VERY small, especially in Green Bay.

Green Day.

Wed 11:29 PM

Maybe you think because I have depression/anxiety that I'm weak. However, you forget that I come from a good strong family and for 90% of my life I have kicked ass. I also have education behind me and I know people.

Please don't let all this darkness in, do the right thing, be honest and most importantly, realize where all the hours are coming from. You know as much as I do they are bull. I mean just a glimpse, you have 2.5 hours for changing background, I haven't even really begun to dig like my lawyers will!

I'm helping you out before this gets too dark as that's what I think the Lord wants me to do. I don't think you're a bad person at all, I just think you quickly asked for more money as I haven't been your biggest fan and I think you believe I am a small person because of the illness I have described to you.

However, you're wrong! Screw me over like you are and I will need to get the right people involved. My family isn't poor, just I am.

Finish the site the correct way and I will even leave your name out of my mouth. Otherwise, not responding is just going to infuriate me.

I'm trying to do the right thing and give you a chance to save yourself, as you know as much as I do, what you're doing to be is bull!

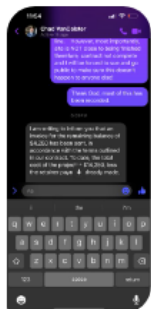

I'll pray for you.

Wed 11:50 PM

LOL, we both know way to many of the same people. Either you do or Team 2 does. Just funny how small the world is. I have lived here my entire life and know these people well.

Please again send me copy of contract.

Can't believe you're a Christian, especially at such a good church. Again amazing how much of the same people we know. It's such a small small small world

We even went to same school, UWGB, actually my grandpa was Ed Weidner. We should be connected in the middle of the world in the same way with our names.

should be working together, not trying to screw each other over.

12:32 AM

We could end this two ways basically if you think about it. 1st way helps us both, 2nd way will only hurt you, not me. I don't know why you are pushing me to go 2nd option.

Again, maybe because I have opened up to you so much you're trying to take advantage of me, I don't really understand how your mind is working right now. One thing for sure, you're not doing right thing.

In addition, you don't scare me at all, I know WAY too many people, come from WAY too good of family! Bullies like you will pay in afterlife, if not in this life.

1:50 AM

You must have done this many times before, please send me copy of contract. You must have wrote it in something where it disappeared after signing it, a copy should have been provided.

Chad seriously, do the right thing!

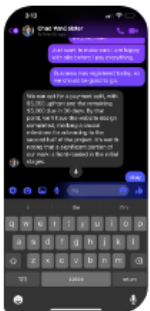

Don't piss me off!

I'm a really good person, so again end result, you will either have karma in this life or the next if this is end result. Your call, if I die tomorrow I will go to heaven, don't think the Lord would grant you the same. Again, life is blink of the eye compared to eternity.

3:14 AM

This was contract!

30 days after initial payment and web design will be completed. Web design isn't even complete, so many mistakes already. I haven't even begun to look at rest of site.

I have been giving you so many breaks, over and over again in order to be a good person.

I know better than to go to small claims with this as I have invested way too much money into my business which main component was your site. Talked with lawyer friend briefly and I can take you to court for WAY more than the $10k.

Piece of advice....

- 1) Talk with the Lord
- 2) Talk with lawyer. Maybe he can help you see big picture of damages I can claim.
- 3) Remember I am well known in city of Green Bay, lived here my entire life.

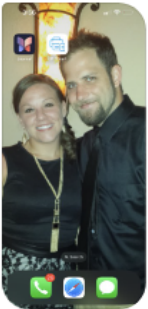

Maybe we can do it this way, I will bad mouth you so much that you will be forced to sue for that, whatever it's called. Then I'll counter sue for website and breach of contract and in end you'll lose. You can pay fees which include my attorney fees.

We both have opportunity to do the right thing and make this not so evil 🐺, again let's act like adults and figure this out.

But if forced to I will sue for WAY more than just the $10k on website, I will sue for everything i have lost with palm springs and money I have lost not making money on the site. Plus other damages such as "image I have lost". I now seem like a flaky company because website won't be done on time. I have already marketed site so much and spent so much money doing this.

OMG, Chad, think, trying to throw you a bone! 🦷

I'm just a little girl, just trying to make it in this world.

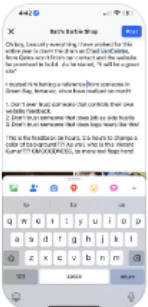

I even let a homeless man that I didn't know before move in with my husband and I for 9 months. Dave and I have done the right thing over and over again.

I feel like I basically tried to enter the world again and the business sharks/men are trying to chew me up and spit me out. Take advantage of my kindness.

So again

1. Talk with the Lord
2. Talk with your lawyer if you still need to
3. Talk to your friends about me, I have a good reputation in Green Bay.

4:42 AM

Didn't send it yet, won't until so hear back from you. Will start with Barbie, Fashion Girl Nation, then proceed within short period of time with Green Bay FB groups. They are all great supporters.

This is a HUGE problem either way with the world. Men acting like they smarter, better than you, they can push others, women/gays around. Or this is a case of me speaking up about my mental health and you using it as a sign of weakness.

My mind never stops either way, until the right thing is done. What you're doing is not the right thing, just sick sick sick sick! Shame shame shame!!!

Again, don't take my mental health as a sign of weakness.

Bottom line bud....Do the right thing!

Working with you has caused me so much distress. You have basically been taking my dream of making a ebay/facebook site for selling fashion dolls and shitting on it the entire time.

You have wasted so much of my time, money, reputation and have only given me complete distress.

7:22 AM

Don't know how to start do you.....

Do one thing for me, take a deep breath and talk to the Lord, let go of all your negative energy,

Open up your Holy Spirit.

I am very sorry that you feel this way. Truly, I am. You mentioned taking advantage of people, but it is you who is asking us to work for free. The site is complete, and while there can always be improvements, we've already added additional scope of work such as two logos and the Doll Wall feature.

The contract is a time and material contract. When the allocated time is up, we either stop or continue working under a new agreement. At this point, the contract terms are met. I am sorry that you disagree. The Statement of Work (SOW) clearly outlines the terms on which the estimate was based. Even if the estimate was incorrect or new additions were introduced, it doesn't change the fact that the contract is based on time and material.

We are presenting you with two options at this point:

Option 1: We agree not to invoice you the $4,250 as stipulated in the contract. In return, you will sign a contract release and a non-disclosure agreement (NDA). Upon receipt of these signed documents, QOLOS will provide all code and files, including the database, or transfer hosting to your name.

Option 2: You may involve legal counsel. However, please be aware that this course of action will likely incur significant costs, and QOLOS is confident that we have fulfilled our contractual obligations. You will also be required to pay the outstanding $4,250.

Please note, at this point, there is no option to continue our business relationship. Our contract is complete, and we do not wish to engage in another contract with you at this time.

As requested, please find attached a copy of your contract.

I am very sorry that you feel this way. Truly, I am. You mentioned takin...

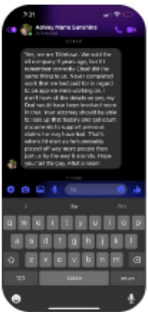

How on earth can you say site is complete? I can't even start digging into the site as a seller. What's wrong with you....Honestly... Olease read all my notes, site isn't close to being functional, it's kind of a joke of a site to be honest. You did this exact same thing to Pamperins a couple years ago.

I created several seller accounts, and they function as described in the contract - with additional feature. If you want changes to that, it's understandable, but we are out of hours.

However, they followed through on not paying you until work was done. I should have done same,

Chad, throwing you a Holy Bone! Don't do this, do the right thing,

Which of the 2 options above would you like to choose?

What options do I really have Chad, your not giving me much. Either way, my business is out window, my Palm Soring Trio ans thousands of dollars I have spent on donations out the window

You not only messed with Heaven, you messed with doing the right thing. Fuck you, bad boy, scammer, GAME ON!

I guess you nailed me. You and Dan are very similar. Want me to work for free. I made Dan a lot of money and he refused to pay me in spite of that.

I can introduce you to teh developers that worked for Dan after me - and confirmed he's a bad client - and a bully.

Maybe this time when we go beyond small claims court, maybe you will show up!

This is going WAY beyond what I could claim in small claims court.

The $5k you want is petty cash to me and my proof of wealth?

Either way, you're going to HELL, you're a bad bad bad man.

i'll pray for you!

Absolutely, that will cost you well over $10K. Feel free to consult a lawyer. If they are good, they will inform you that you are in the wrong here.

It sounds like you are not inclined to agree with option 1. If you change your mind, please email me at chad@qolos.com.

Otherwise, I'm closing this conversation.

Dude, you're not going to bully me with absolutely no facts and all ego. You're also an idiot if you think I will agree to your terms. You have proven over and over again your lack of professionalism, not only with me, but just happened to be a friend of mine.

Do you want to try to meet in middle or no, last time I'm asking you? Then as much as my motherwise, I have proff now you have done this same thing to other respectable people.

You're not only going to need to speak to judge, you will the Lord on judgement days. Balls in your court Chad, what type of person do you want to be?

judgement day

We are waiting....

Your next words are VERY important!

9:59 AM

Please find attached the NDA from my attorney for your review and signature. Once signed, I will proceed to transfer the hosting account to you or deliver all the project files, enabling you to continue with another developer.

Nope!

lol

First have your attorney send me letter of representation, I obviously don't trust you AT ALL!

I gave you chance. Now we will proceed a different way. Tell your attorney that. Also, thanks for sending me contract!
